Financial Aid Information

Our school has been authorized to participate in selected federal Financial Aid Programs such as the Pell Grant and Direct Loan programs. Other resources for financial assistance are the Private Industry Council, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and the Veteran's Administration. To apply for federal financial aid complete the FAFSA online at www.FAFSA.gov. When completing the FAFSA online you must enter OCVTS's Title IV federal school code, 016934, in order for the school to receive the results. You must make an appointment with the Financial Aid Officer four days after completion of the FAFSA. For further information please contact the Financial Aid Office at 732.473.3100 ext 3139.

APPLICATION

Students must file either the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or the renewal Free Application for Federal Student Aid. Be sure to use the correct FAFSA for the school year you will be attending. Complete all sections of the FAFSA. To process the forms, tax returns must be linked to FAFSA online or official tax transcript from the IRS will be required. Other documentation may be required for verification as necessary.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Official Tax Transcript: You may be required to provide the appropriate official tax transcript from the IRS if the U.S. Department of Education selects your application for verification. You should be aware that financial aid awards might be adjusted after verification. If you do not provide the requested documents when asked, no financial aid will be made available.

Documentation of Citizenship: Students who are not U.S. citizens are subject to different regulations that may require supporting documentation. You will be contacted if this applies to you. U.S. citizens may also be requested to document their citizenship status.

Selective Service: Males born after July 1, 1960 must register with Selective Service to receive financial aid. The federal government may require students to verify registration. Financial aid cannot be disbursed without such verification.

Social Security Number: The federal government will confirm that the social security number on your FAFSA application matches other data in their files. Students whose records do not match will be required to verify their social security number before aid can be disbursed. If you have changed your name, be sure to notify the Social Security Administration. Your name with Social Security must match the name on the FAFSA before aid can be disbursed.

Veterans: Students who claim that they are veterans may need to verify their benefits status. Financial aid cannot be disbursed without such verification.

STUDENT AID REPORTS

2-3 weeks after filing the FAFSA you will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR). If you do not receive this, call 319.337.5665 to check the status. Review the SAR for accuracy. If corrections are needed, make these on SAR Part II and follow instructions for processing or send to the Financial Aid Office with signatures for electronic processing.

TYPES OF AID

A financial aid award package is the total amount of financial aid offered to a student by all sources. It is made up of components from one of the following three categories: scholarships, grants and loans.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS: Scholarships and grants are types of gift aid that do not have to be repaid. They may take the form of Federal Pell Grants or scholarships.

-Federal Pell Grants: The Federal Pell Grant Program provides assistance to students who demonstrate financial need with no previous bachelor degree, according to economic criteria and program requirements established by the federal government. To be eligible, you must enroll in a degree or approved certificate/diploma degree program. Your Student Aid Report (SAR) contains the official result from the U.S. Department of Education.

-Outside Scholarships and Grants: You may be eligible for a specialized scholarship or grant from an outside agency. Some sources to explore are employers, unions, professional organizations, and community and special interest groups (Private Industry Council, Board of Social Services, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, etc.) You must notify the Financial Aid Office if you receive funds from any of these sources. Many outside scholarships can be searched free of charge on the Internet. See the Financial Aid Officer or go to www.fastweb.com

LOANS: A part of your financial aid package may be a loan. A loan must be repaid. Therefore, when deciding whether to borrow, you should examine your need for assistance and your future ability to repay. Unlike consumer loans, student loans have longer terms of repayment and in most cases are not repayable until you leave school. Interest rates vary from program to program, but are usually lower than rates on loans made to the general public. The precise terms of the loan are contained in the promissory notes that borrowers must sign. The descriptions given here are summaries of terms available at the time of printing and are subject to change.

-Subsidized Federal Direct Student Loan: As part of your financial aid package, we may suggest that you borrow through the Federal Direct Student Loan Program. This loan is obtained from the Department of Education and is generally insured by the federal government. During the first year of undergraduate study, you may borrow up to $3,500. The total amount borrowed in any year may not exceed the cost of education minus the family contribution and minus all other financial aid received that year. The interest rate is set each year and capped at 8.25 percent, but can be lower. Interest does not accrue and repayment does not begin until six months after you cease to be enrolled at least half-time.

-Unsubsidized Federal Direct Student Loan: The Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan terms and conditions are essentially the same as the regular Direct loan, except the federal government does not pay the interest on the unsubsidized loan while you are in school. During the first year of undergraduate study you may borrow up to $2,000. in unsubsidized loans as a dependent student, or up to $6,000. in unsubsidized loans as an independent student. You must begin to repay interest 60 days after the first loan is issued. You can defer paying the principal on your loan if you are enrolled for the period of the loan. Also, interest can be "capitalized" (added to the principal) if you want. the interest rate set each year cannot exceed 8.25 percent, but can be lower.

HOW A FINANCIAL AID AWARD PACKAGE IS DEVELOPED

In developing your financial aid award package, we begin by constructing a budget based on the estimated cost of education for the academic year. After analyzing your resources and calculating your need we determine your financial aid award.

Constructing Your Budget

I. Your need for financial assistance is calculated as the difference between the estimated cost of your education and your resources. An expense budget includes tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, personal expenses, and a transportation allowance.

II. Colleges and Universities base their "financial need" analysis on the federal mandated formula called the "Federal Methodology" or FM. You can get a booklet describing the formula in detail by writing to:

FEDERAL METHODOLOGY
FEDERAL STUDENT AID PROGRAMS
P.o. Box 84, Washington, DC 20044
You may also call 800.4.FED.AID

In summary, the FM indicates the amount you and your family are expected to contribute (family contribution) toward your education. It includes factors such as taxable and nontaxable income, assets (savings, etc.), benefits (for example, income from Social Security or unemployment insurance), family size, and the number of family members in college. The amount calculated is subtracted from the cost of attendance at OCVTS, yielding your financial need.

Cost of attending OCVTS
Minus: Family Contribution (determined by FM),
Equals: Financial Need

We try to "package" (combine financial need programs) - scholarships, grants and loans. The actual mix of your aid package varies according to need.

OCVTS is an Equal Opportunity School District. The Carl D. Perkins Vocational Technical Education Act provides partial funding for this publication.

The Financial Aid Office will give you individual assistance in filing the form. Please call for an appointment.
