

BRICKLAYER, ALLIED CRAFTWORKER & MASON

2 YEARS / 900 HOURS / OCVTS BRICK CAMPUS

Construct and repair buildings and other structures using bricks, blocks, and mortar. They can construct and repair walls, foundations, partitions, arches, and chimney stacks. They can also create decorative masonry work, such as archways and walkways.

Related Job Titles

- Brick mason
- Stonemason
- Bricklayer helper
- Glaziers
- Craftsman
- Artisan
- Tile setter

Career Ladder

Most entrants in this career begin as a bricklayer, masonry worker, or skilled laborer. They can advance to construction site supervisor, foreman, estimator, or start their own business.

Certificates

OCVTS Certificate of Completion
OSHA 10 Credentials

By the end of the program, participants will be prepared for positions in the construction industry, ready to contribute to high-quality, structurally sound masonry projects in residential, commercial, and industrial settings.

LEARN MORE ABOUT THIS PROGRAM
CONTACT US!

phone: (732) 244 - 1122
email: admissions@ocvts.org

Skills You Will Learn

- Bricklaying
- Blocklaying
- Concrete finishing
- Blueprint reading and materials handling
- Stone setting and tile installation

Preferred Skills for Career Field

You should prefer:

- Creative design
- Physical labor
- Teamwork
- Solve simple math problems quickly

You should be able to:

- Use hand-eye coordination
- Pay attention to detail
- Have physical ability to lift materials

Continuing Education

BAC Local 4 & 5 Apprenticeships
Mason Contractors Association NJ
International Masonry Institute

Williamson College of the Trades
Ocean County College
Brookdale College

